PUBLIC DEBT OF THE UNITED STATES. Every whig stumper from Maine to Georgia, asserts, when speaking of the Debt of the United States, that Mr. Van Buren left the Presidentia! Chair with an enormous National Debt hanging over the people of this country, and that it required all the financial skill of the whigs to extricate the Government from this great debt. But what are the facts? By the tables below, which are official, it will be seen that the whigs increased, instead of decreased the debt.

In obedience to a resolution of the Senate of the 23d of December, 1841, the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. W. Forward, transmitted the following statement, prepared by the Register of the Treasury, of the amount of the public debt on the 3d of March 1841, when the whigs came into power.

By the above tables it will be seen that the whigs, while in power, increased the national debt to the round sum of EIGHTEEN MILLION, THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY THREE THOU-SAND, EIGHT HUNDRED AND NINETY DOLLARS, AND EIGHTEEN CENTS. This certainly looks but little like retrenchment.

Not only was the general government but little in debt when the whigs came into power, but there was over half a million of dollras in the treasury on the 3d of March 1841. These are facts which the whigs cannot deny.

The Globe of the 28th ult., says: "We learn that the President of the United States returned to this city last evening with his bride, a beautiful and lished lady, the daughter of the late David Gardner, esq. of New York." The bride is, we understand, about 20. Was it the President of the U. S., or old John Tyler of Va. that Miss Gardner 83-Yesterday was a fine day for the Sunday ol and Temperance Society. The number in attendance was very respectable. We were not present to hear the addresses of J. McConagny and T. W. Tipron, esqrs., but understand the they were both excellent addresses.

Ary-Wheat harvest has now fairly comme the crops are generally light in this county.

CLAY'S CARD-PLAYING ADMITTED. The editor of the Frankfort Commonwealth, the State organ of whiggery in Kentucky, driven to the wall by such men as Gen. McCalla in relation to Mr. Clay's gambling, admits that he does play cards, and plays for money too, but it is only to "enliven the interest of the game." Just listen to him: "It would be uncandid to conceal that I have understood he has sometimes engaged in the practice as a sosial diversion. That he has, on such occa-sions, bet money, to enliven the interest of the game but not for the base purpose of gain, is readily ad-mitted as probable."

Such is the admission of Mr. Clav's Kentucky organ. This thing of betting money to "enliven the interest of the game," is what we do not exactly comprehend as differing from gambling!

After this, we hope to hear no more denials of Clay's card-playing, or of playing for money. That matter is now admitted, and we hope his moral and religious supporters will not, at least, claim to be all the decency hereafter. Mr. Clay's old age should lead him to other amusements than the card table. Where is Ogle now-and where are the Junius tracts, that so wickediy lied about Clay's not playing cards for the last twenty years! What reliance is to be placed on such politicians? Where are the "moral reform societies"?- Ohio States-

GOODS UP-WHEAT DOWN.

The Cleaveland Plain Dealer says: "Whoever examines our report of Markets from veek to week, finds the price of wheat and flour going down, down, down, and whoever comes to Cleaveland to buy cotton and woollen goods finds them going up, up, up. Both are the fruits of a High Tariff. How do you like it, Farmers?"

The Elyria Republican says: "The tendency of the wheat market appears to be down ward. Two weeks since it brought 80 cents-now it brings 70 or 75. By many it is predicted that it will go much lower." The same paper says:

"Nearly every kind of cottons have advanced from 25 to 50 per cent. A merchant told us last week that he dared not bring on his usual variety, prices so high. Woolens have advanced 30 per cent. Sugar has advanced nearly 40 per cent. Almost every other article has advanced largely.

From the Ohio Statesman. The Pittsbugh Daily American, the coon organ of the city, has the following extraordinary article on nativeism. "NATIVE AMERICAN PARTY.

"There are but few good whigs but are friendly to the principles of this perty, and will, at a proper time, unite to carry them out. Nevertheless, it cannot but be seen that under the present organization of things, and the rogress made in the arrangements for the coming election, and the momentuous importance of that election, that no good whig, will be found aiding or abetting the organization of such a party at present. whatever may be their views hereafter. THE COLUMBIAN LADY'S AND GEN-TLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, edited by John Inman, and filled with contributions from the most eminent and accomplished writers of the country .-The motives which have led to the commencement of this undertaking may be briefly stated. It is be-lieved by the proprietor that there is in the United States an immense provision of literary ability, for which as yet there is no adequate encouragement, or field of display: that besides the numbers of clever and scccessful writers, whose productions are week-ly, and monthly, and annually read with delight by thousands; there are yet greater numbers constantly arriving at maturity of power, who have only to appear on the stage of publication to receive a bril-liant award of fame, and that the power of those whose names are already pronounced with respecby lips of wisest censue, are capable of more and still higher exertion than has yet been called forth. It is believed, too, that the demand for literary production in this country, especially in the periodical channel, exceeds the supply in a very large proportion, and the new supplies have only to be presented of the right quality, and in the right way to insure a hearty welcome and profitable reception. No doubt is entertained of the American mind's a hilly to sustain itself—certainly on its own ground.

American readers there can be, and is, a cordial welcome for all that American writers can produce of excellent and interesting.

From these premises it is undoubtedly inferred that there is abundant room for another Magazine, will not fail to be greeted as a welcome visiter by thous inds upon thousands, who as yet have done little or nothing toward the support and develop-

bility to sustain itself—certainly on its own ground

f not abroad-against all the competition that the intellect of other lands can bring to the encounter:

and full assurance is felt that among the millions of
